

How Do I Know That I Have HIV?

QUIZ

1 Can you get HIV from oral sex?

- a There is a high chance of getting HIV from oral sex.
- b There is a low chance of getting HIV from oral sex.
- c Only if you are gay.

2 You can find out if you have HIV by getting:

- a A blood test.
- b Skin lesions checked.
- c An eye examination.

3 On average, how long do you have to wait to know if you have HIV?

- a It takes your body up to 3 months to develop detectable signs of HIV.
- b It takes one week after infection.
- c It takes 9 months.

4 What are the symptoms if a person becomes infected with HIV?

- a A lot of people get 'flu-like' symptoms.
- b That is a myth. No-one gets symptoms.
- c A rash comes out the following day.

5 How effective are condoms in preventing HIV?

- a Not effective, they break a lot.
- b Very effective.

How Do I Know That I Have HIV?

QUIZ

6 If you have another sexually transmitted infection, your chance of getting HIV/AIDS through having sex:

- a Stays the same.
- b Is higher.
- c Is lower.

7 Condoms are available to people in all countries.

- a No, they are not.
- b Yes, they are.

8 Sharing a needle and syringe to inject drugs is safe when...

- a You only share with your boyfriend/girlfriend.
- b You only inject steroids (only junkies get HIV).
- c It is never safe.

9 When it comes to finding out if you have HIV...

- a You would be better off not to know that you have HIV.
- b I don't even want to think about it.
- c In the long term your health would be better if you knew.

