

HIV Treatments QUIZ

1 By how much has the life expectancy of a person taking HIV treatments increased.

- a There is no difference.
- b It has doubled.
- c It has tripled.

2 For a person with HIV the best approach is:

- a If it ain't broke, don't fix it.
- b Early treatment and continual testing.

3 Which proportion of the world's population can get HIV drug treatment?

- a 5%
- b 15%
- c 65%

4 HIV treatments can be taken forever, allowing a person to have a normal lifespan.

- a Yes
- b No

5 Possible HIV drug side effects include:

- a Vomiting
- b Insomnia
- c Headaches
- d Muscle wasting
- e Hair loss
- f Rash
- g All of the above

6 Do women have different side effects to me?

- a Yes
- b No

7 When deciding on treatments:

- a A person should start treatment straight away.
- b They should take time to consider.

8 Apart from people's access to drugs, the biggest factor that gets in the way of people taking anti-HIV medications are:

- a the side effects.
- b the numbers of pills a person has to take.
- c having to take medication with food.

9 'Drug resistance' means...?

- a HIV changes itself so that the HIV drugs do not work anymore.
- b A person with HIV is reluctant to go on medication.

10 Since the development of anti-HIV drugs, some countries have seen how many less AIDS related deaths:

- a 70%
- b 25%
- c 5%

